

Programme outcome :-

- The B.A. /B.sc programme will be acquainted with the social, economic, educational, political, legal & psychological way of thinking.
- The students acquire knowledge in the field of social sciences and humanities which make them sensitive & sensible for the society.
- In this B.A/B.sc programme, the students able to understand about the child right, women right. Child rearing, child education and gerontology.
- With this programme the students able to develop their skill with help of field awareness. They can demonstrate any relevant topic with mass of people.
- The students use their creativity with the making toys for child development, child learning tools and awareness aids.
- The students will demonstrate advanced critical thinking skills.
- The program also empowers the multi-disciplinary ways like counselling, early childhood education, child right, woman right and gerontology. So the Students will be prepared themselves for a wide range of career choice.
- After using psychometric tests students able to learn about their quality as well as career choice also.