CONCEPT NOTE

COVID-19 HAS DEVASTATED COMMUNITIES AND ECONOMIES AROUND THE WORLD AND PROFOUNDLY CHANGED THE WAYS IN WHICH WE LIVE AND WORK. STANDING ON THE VERGE OF A YEAR ALMOST, WE CAN SURELY COMMENT THAT LAST YEAR HAD NOT ONLY MADE SHORT TERM CHANGES, BUT CONTRIBUTED TOWARDS MORE LONG TERM AND SUSTAINABLE CHANGES, BE IT IN ACADEMICS OR ANY OTHER SOCIO-ECONOMIC FIELD. THE SPREAD OF THE COVID-19 HAS PRESENTED AN UNPARALLELED CHALLENGE FOR ACADEMIA AND THE SOCIAL SCIENCE FIELD AS WELL. IN A TIME WHEN SOCIAL CONTACT SHOULD BE KEPT TO A MINIMUM DUE TO SAFETY CONCERNS, QUALITATIVE AND ENGAGED RESEARCH WORK HAVE BEEN UNDER CONTINUOUS THREAT. CORONAVIRUS HAS OVERTURNED SOCIAL ORDERS AND SIGNIFICANTLY ADJUSTED REGULAR EXISTENCE ACROSS THE GLOBE. OUR CURRENT CONDITIONS, WHILE EXCEPTIONAL, HAVE BEEN SIGNIFICANTLY MOULDED BY TENACIOUS CULTURAL REAL FACTORS, FOR EXAMPLE, DUG IN RACIAL AND FINANCIAL DISPARITY, THE MULTIPLICATION OF MISINFORMATION, AND NERVES ABOUT THE CAPACITY OF THE WORLD'S POPULAR GOVERNMENTS TO STAND UP TO SIGNIFICANT EMERGENCIES. TOP TO BOTTOM SOCIAL ARRANGEMENT WILL BE ESSENTIAL TO SECURING THE EMERGENCY AND OUTLINING A WAY AHEAD. KEEPING ALL THIS IN MIND, WE ARE HENCEFORTH GOING TO ORGANIZE A WEBINAR TO DISCUSS THE CURRENT ISSUES THAT ARE CAUSING BARRIERS IN THE PATHWAY OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH.
